

The background of the entire page is a photograph of the interior of the U.S. Capitol building. The image shows the grand, ornate architecture with high ceilings, columns, and murals. In the foreground, a group of people, including students and staff, are gathered in a large hall. Some are looking at informational displays, while others are talking. The lighting is warm and highlights the architectural details.

2010 Youth Tour to Washington, D.C.

June 11 to 17

See the treasures in our nation's capital. You can enjoy an all-expense-paid trip to Washington, D.C., June 11 to 17 as part of the electric cooperatives' Youth Tour. Visit the Capitol, the Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts, the Vietnam Memorial and Mount Vernon, cruise on the Potomac and see many other fascinating places.

You will have a chance to meet and talk with your congressional representative. Best of all, you'll meet other students your age from all across the United States. Darke Rural Electric Cooperative will sponsor two students on this trip. To be eligible to compete, you must be a high school sophomore or junior. For information on how you can be part of this trip, call the cooperative office.
